

Saturday, May 27, 2006

‘One Day - Information Integrity Seminars’ 19th and 20th May 2006

The Center for Information Integrity Research (CIIR), Pune had organized two ‘One Day- Information Integrity Seminars’ jointly with Shrimati Kashibai Nawale College of Engineering ( SKNCOE) and Indian Institute of Technology (IIT), Mumbai on 19th and 20th May 2006 respectively. The purpose of the Seminar was to present the research work going on in the area of Information Integrity, its importance in research and creating platform for interaction between educators, researchers. Seminars were presented by following speakers on their respective research topics:

1. Prof. Reema Khurana – “Achieving Integrity In Open System Databases”.
2. Natasha Kapoor – “Information Integrity Technology Development – An Overview”.
3. Prof. Manisha Dale – “Biometric Information System”.

The Seminar was arranged under the guidance of Dr. Vijay Mandke CIIR Research Leader. Dr. S. Ramesh, Professor IIT, Mumbai and Technical Fellow, General Motors India Pvt. Ltd also attended the seminar and expressed his views on the same.

The organizers who had given full fledge support and resources to organize these seminars are:

1. Prof. Milind Mali and Prof. R. G. Powar, Sinhgad Technical Education Society, Pune
2. Prof. N. L. Sarda and Prof. S. Ramesh, IIT, Mumbai.